Highland Historic Loop Drive

Okanogan Country in North Central Washington State offers everything from snow-capped mountains to high deserts, verdant agricultural areas to wide-open range. You’ll find friendly towns and quiet corners to explore here, the largest county in Washington State. With 1,000 miles of scenic trails, 200 water and wildlife access areas, three million acres of public land, and over 300 days of sunshine, you can experience almost any outdoor adventure imaginable.
